Subject: Impeachment of Bush, Cheney

Impeachment—even if it stands no chance of success in the present Congress—must be discussed for the purpose of educating the public, before the election, about the constitutional violations and crimes of these men. Their offences are far worse than any Nixon committed, let alone Clinton.

I attended the anti-war meeting you held at Morse Pond School in Falmouth, standing-room only you'll recall, where we gave you our full support in taking on these thugs, in support of the Constitution. I'm sure your colleagues are all looking around for somebody to make a move. Why shouldn't it be you to do so? No Republican in your District would dare to condemn such an action if he hoped to win election. Republicans I know, almost without exception, passionately say they will not vote for Bush this year.

If not you, then tell us who to turn to?
